

ServiceMaster of Charleston's 6TH ANNUAL FIREFIGHTER APPRECIATION NIGHT

Bring the family for a cook-out, concert & ballgame as we support our local heroes.

Wednesday June 6, 2012

Brittlebank Park Tailgate Party & Picnic

BYOC (Bring your own chair for an afternoon party!)*

Cookout & Concert 5:00-7:00 PM RiverDogs Game 7:05 PM

Come help ServiceMaster of Charleston & our local Firefighters raise money in support of Camp "Can" Do. This camp is designed specially for burned children in association with MUSC! To learn more visit their website: www.scburnedchildrensfund.org

BRING THE KIDS AND
LET THEM
ENJOY THE
JUMP CASTLE

4 WEBER GAS GRILLS
will be given away
to the Winners for their Fire Station
2 Attendance Drawings*
1 Tire Change Contest Winner
1 Frozen T-Shirt Contest Winner
must be present to win*

TRY THE SERVICEMASTER
PIT CREW
TIRE CHANGE
GAME

For all of our "Non-Firefighter" guests at the picnic -
A special tire change contest will be held just for you! The fastest time wins a gift certificate valued at $150.00 for residential cleaning services.

FEATURING: EDDIE BUSH!

National Recording Artist Eddie Bush joins ServiceMaster of Charleston for the 6th Annual Firefighters Appreciation Night. With his hits "Hard to Stop a Train" & "My Kind of Beautiful", along with his soon-to-be released "Calloused Hands", Eddie brings the party to Brittlebank! Visit www.EddieBush.com to read & listen to what Eddie's all about!

